If notified during the first 10 calendar days after placement, no fees will be charged on payments made – partial or in full – when received during this period. After 10 calendar days, if balance is not paid in full, the account will automatically convert to Immediate Action Collection and normal commissions will apply.

Attorney Forwarding

Suit fees and costs must be advanced by the members. Suit fees are non-contingent. Accounts forwarded to attorneys are subject to prevailing local bar rates. NACM's fee will be 10% of gross collections made by the attorney.

Commissions (Fees)

Commissions will be charged according to the type of account (commercial or special). Members are invoiced for commissions due on direct payments.

Accounts placed for collection are not subject to withdrawal or cancellation without payment of applicable commission.
